Letter of Commendation

Atul a multi-faceted professional with experience and insights in different functions and sectors of business. His enthusiasm and passion stand out to make positive difference to individuals and organisations. He has partnered with TMTC in designing and delivering several leadership interventions notable were Leadership Insights for JLR India, Time management skills, Learn to Lead – Managerial Skills 101 were some of his programs that were well appreciated.

Atul smile is disarming which enables him to engage and stimulate learners with the energy he brings into the classroom both in person or virtual. His art of story telling makes the concepts come alive in the learners. He makes use of various tools and techniques to make learning practical, persuasive and personalised.

In all my conversations Atul whether in the design of a program or approaches to learning have seen the coach in him surface to make them valuable.

I am sure both individuals and corporates will find his repertoire effective.

With my best regards,
